

Best secret storage

'Fjarill' chest of drawers, by Jakob Jørgensen, perfect for our Best socks, by Pantherella

When we spotted this wall-hung chest of drawers by Danish designer Jakob Jørgensen last autumn, we knew we'd found a tailor-made solution for our sock storage. Its name, based on the Swedish word for butterfly, hints at the metamorphosis from tidy geometry to a more sculptural shape when the 14 drawers are open – unlike most chests of drawers, you can view all the contents at once. Of course, we've filled it with socks of the highest quality from our purveyor of choice: Pantherella, a British maker with 75 years of expertise and a solid supply of Sea Island cotton, silk merino and cashmere. ★
