

Best In Show

Design Miami

27 MON, 21

Top picks from Design Miami/ Basel 2021

Amid an atmosphere of jubilant reunion, Design Miami/ Basel opened its 15th edition this week. Following 2020's hiatus, the international community that makes the fair great has come together to produce an especially beautiful show, full of masterpieces and new discoveries alike.

To add an extra dash of fun, Design Miami/ Basel enlisted a jury of experts to review the onsite exhibitions and present Best in Show awards. This year's stellar jury includes architect Lee Mindel, art advisor Simon Andrews, art advisor Jeremy Morrison, Design Miami/ Vice President of Fairs Grela Orihuela, and incoming Design Miami/ Curatorial Director Wava Carpenter.

We spoke with Mindel to get the inside scoop. Scroll on to see the winners.

Top 5 Contemporary Works:

Two unexpected light forms presented by Galerie Maria Wettergren: Kurenai Light Object by Ane Lykke (Photo © Lee Mindel) and City Light by Boris Berlin & Daniel Berlin (Photo © James Harris). "A delightful representation of the role that light plays in Scandinavian design."