BASEL MESSEPLATZ — BASEL, SWITZERLAND

SEP 21, 2021 — SEP 26, 2021

Some of today's most collectible design objects downplay function in favor of exuberant aesthetics and visions of life beyond the ordinary. These contemporary works heighten the experience of the everyday.

Hanne Friis

Shiny Wave

Shiny Wave is a masterful recent work by Norwegian textile artist Hanne Friis. Profoundly organic, the viscose wall sculpture is hand-dyed by the artist with natural materials from trees, such as bark, leaves, and cones, as well as iron mordant. She then carefully hand-stitches the composition with a needle and a thread. The results are like something out of a fairy tale.
